

MOVISTROB® Special Unit Type 420.00-S/2HL

used for rotating and vibrating speed measurement as well as for the observation of fast moving periodic or non-periodic mechanisms at two from each other separately located fields of events at the same time; for instance in printing, paper, labelling and packaging industry etc.

Description and technical data as per standard model MOVISTROB type 420.00 but control unit equipped with two receptacles for connection of 2 hand lamps type 900.00.

Hand lamps can be controlled by additional signal pushbutton switches located on the front panel and operated either individually or both at the same time without power drop.

Additional Information

Connection box for hand lamps:
Control mode of hand lamps:

two B.C. sockets on small side of control unit individually or simultaneously without power drop by means of signal pushbuttons

Length of hand lamp with cord:

2,50 m standard - up to max. 10 m total length available
on request.

Recommendable Accessories:

photoelectric pickup, induction transmitter, phase shifter,

Notice:

for small dimensioned objects we recommend our magnifying
strob lamp model 900.06
Linsenstroblampe Typ 900.06